

I urge you to NOT change the rules governing ownership of radio stations and to encourage more points of view in the media not less.